IT'S EKKA TIME!!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good Morning Ladies and welcome to our August meeting. Thank you to those who participated in the Resolution process and it will be very interesting to see the results of this process during the Convention. Speaking of Convention – it's getting close so I hope those of you hoping to attend have registered. You don't want to miss out!!

The windy weather at the beginning of the month was absolutely a sign that the Royal Queensland Show is just around the corner – and so at this meeting we celebrate the EKKA. I'm sure many of us can recall significant female family members exhibiting their expert baking skills, sewing, knitting or other crafty skills which meant spending many hours walking around looking at these marvels. Back then I just wanted to go to Sideshow Alley and then get my hands on Show Bags. These days I love looking at the baking and crafts and today I can't wait to see what our talented Aspley VIEW ladies have produced.

Have a lovely day – Regards Cheryl.

A display area has been set up today to show a variety of crafts – crochet, sewing, knitting, pottery, painting etc. along with an area for the scarves which have been donated. If you wish to purchase a scarf from those donated there will be a charge of $5.

Please welcome our Guest Speakers today: Ivan Collins & Ian Bennett.

Ivan is a singer, songwriter, musician, playwright & author. He has two publications listed in the National Library of Australia. Due to a bad accident Ivan became a quadriplegic. He is an inspirational and entertaining speaker and combines humour with thought provoking insights into life with a disability.

Ian backs Ivan on guitar, playing original songs as well as songs from well-known artists.
