

Lennox Head Evening VIEW Club

Seasonal Highlights

- Spring Begins (Sept 1st): The days are lengthening, mornings feel fresher, and gardens are bursting back to life. Keep an eye out for wattles, jacarandas, and native orchids coming into bloom.
 - Wildflowers of WA: Western Australia is world-famous for its wildflower season, and September is peak viewing time. National parks become living carpets of colour, drawing nature lovers from around the globe.
 - Whale Watching: Humpback whales continue their migration south. Head to the NSW South Coast, Hervey Bay in QLD, or even Sydney's headlands for breathtaking sightings.
-

Nature & Wildlife

- Magpie Season: It's swooping season! Be cautious on bike paths and in parks, as nesting magpies fiercely protect their young.
 - Reptiles on the Move: As the sun warms, snakes and lizards become more active. Bushwalkers — stay alert and stick to paths.
 - Gardening Time: September is ideal for planting spring vegetables, herbs, and colourful blooms.
-

What's On Around Australia

Festivals & Events

-  Floriade, Canberra (13 Sept – 12 Oct): Australia's biggest flower festival, filled with floral displays, live entertainment, food stalls, and art installations. Entry is free.
-  Wine & Food Festivals: September marks the start of spring wine festivals in regions such as the Barossa Valley (SA) and Margaret River (WA), where seasonal produce is paired with world-class wines.
-  Music & Arts: Warmer evenings bring outdoor concerts, regional art shows, and community markets back to life.

Sport Fever

-  AFL Finals Series: September belongs to footy fans! The AFL Grand Final at the MCG is one of the nation's biggest sporting events, usually held on the last Saturday of the month.
 -  NRL Finals: Rugby league heats up as teams battle for a place in October's Grand Final.
 -  Spring Racing Carnivals: Horse racing calendars kick off in September, leading up to the famous Melbourne Cup in November.
-

Family & Lifestyle

- School Holidays: Families can enjoy spring getaways in late September. Zoos, botanic gardens, and coastal trips are especially popular.
 - Outdoor Living: Dust off the picnic rug and barbecue — warmer days make it perfect for reconnecting with the outdoors.
-

🌟 September Snapshot: Australia bursts with life in spring — a time for new beginnings, outdoor adventures, and community celebrations. Whether you're strolling through wildflowers, cheering at the footy, or enjoying a backyard barbecue, September is all about embracing the fresh season ahead.