

A History of VIEW

Key Milestones 1970-1979

1970- 1979

The organisation was renamed “V.I.E.W Clubs of Australia”, effective after changeover 1971.

Country clubs combined into zones – seminars held for the first time.

First National Charter presented to Warringah Evening Club

- 1970 First Canberra Club formed. Canberra City VIEW Club, 2 July 1970.
- 1971 Country clubs combined into Zones and country seminars held for the first time.
The first National Charter presented to Warringah Evening Club
- 1973 Coloured Committee Ribbons introduced
ACT and Country Zone Councillors attended the National Council Meeting in July
National President, Ivy Sweetman represented V.I.E.W. at the Sydney Opera House Opening Ceremonies.
- 1974 Convention – only Presidents, Secretaries & Delegates to attend.
- 1975 Resolutions – Section A – proposals for changes in structure etc. of the Organisation
Section B – other organisations, government etc.
- 1976 Resolution Section A – That representative from clubs be permitted to attend the annual convention as interested spectators, if space permits.
- 1977 National President attended the Inaugural Luncheon of the 200th Club. – Maclean
Minimum age for membership set at 18 years
Observers attended convention but had no voting rights -given the opportunity of learning of the inner workings of VIEW Clubs of Australia.
- 1978

VIEW ACHIEVEMENTS AND HIGHLIGHTS

1979

V.I.E.W Head Office – arranged conventions rather than promotions committee.

National President, Elizabeth Penfold, attended the State Reception held in honour of the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester.

213 Clubs at end of 1979.